Applause...applause!!

Congratulations to Stacey Painter who was the recipient of the first Sock & Buskin Community Theatre educational grant. Stacey is a student at Christian Academy Schools and is planning on attending Spring Arbor University in Michigan, majoring in Psychology. She was in S&B's productions of Side by Side by Sondheim and Back to the 80's and sings soprano in her high school chorus; has been in their musicals and dramas; plays volleyball, basketball, and does archery; and is a member of the Academic and Praise teams.

Stacey says she plans on being in college productions whether she is on stage, running lights or the sound board, or being a stage hand. She would also love to write and direct her own musical some day!

Congratulations also to Sherrie Casad-Lodge, long-time S&B member, actress extraordinaire, and former Marquee editor, who received first place in the Ohio Professional Writers (OPW) competition for her articles on the Sidney Civic Band.

Jeff Starck who appeared on stage in House for Sale, received numerous awards from the OPW including first place for news reporting and first place for feature story for a non-daily newspaper; first place in specialty articles, first place in Hobby/Craft articles, and second place in Personality Profile (more than 500 words).

Christi Thomas received second place in newsletter editing. The January and July 2010 editions of The Marquee were submitted for the competition.

Open auditions for Hairspray will be held on Saturdays, May 28 and June 4 [note additional date] from noon-4 pm at The Historic Sidney Theatre, 120 W. Poplar Street. Actors age 13 and older are welcome. Director Liz Maxson and music directors John Streb and Maureen Joines are looking for a diverse group of teens and adults for this production to be performed on August 5-6-7. Bring a prepared song, be willing to read and dance a bit.

Ann Grisez will be holding auditions for Willy Wonka, Jr. on Tuesday, May 31 and Thursday, June 2 at 5 pm at The Historic Sidney Theatre for kids age 6-12. For detailed information, check out the website: www.sockbuskin.org.

As always, everyone is invited to attend auditions and meetings and we're always looking for volunteers to help with painting, sewing, ushering, etc. Liz Maxson will also be holding Zumba classes at the theater on Mondays and Wednesdays from 5-6 pm starting June 13, immediately preceding Hairspray rehearsals. Everyone is welcome and donations will be accepted.

S&B Tidbits

Next time you see Kent Smith, ask him about his Line Dancing skills or what “purga” means.

We all know Jack Martin is a good speller and he won the City Spelling Bee this year, but we see from the SDN that he is also a good singer!!

Next time you see Harold Poppe ask him how much he likes bingo!

See if Liz Maxson can spell macadamia (as in the Hawaiian nut).

Kudos to Ann Grisez who was a trouper in her recent role as Annie Sullivan. She got hit in the mouth during her final scene and finished it in character...blood and all.

Although she had no speaking lines, Shelby Martell did an excellent job as Helen Keller in the same production.

From Kent's kitchen...

Haystacks

6 oz chocolate chips
6 oz butterscotch chips

1 cup salted peanuts
2 cups chow mein noodles

Melt chocolate and butterscotch chips over very low heat.

Stir in peanuts and noodles.

Place spoonful amounts on cookie sheet and place in refrigerator to harden (2 hours).

Also delicious: substitute peanut butter chips for chocolate chips.
